RADIATION EXPOSURE IN CHILD BEARING AGE / DURING PREGNACY

1. Please inform your physician if you are pregnant so that he can decide benefit v/s risk of the X-ray rays.
2. In Radiology Department, please tell the x-ray technician if you are pregnant or not sure of your pregnancy status. X-ray exposure can harm your baby
3. In Radiology Department be seated in the designated waiting area until you are called by the x-ray technician.
4. Do not enter in the x-ray/mammography/bone densitometry room/CT scan room (doors of these rooms are having red bulb on their top) without permission as you might have exposure of x-rays.
5. Ask x-ray technician for proper shielding before going for an x-ray.
